Ellos Group publishes the sustainability report for 2015

Ellos Group's sustainability report is available from today on the website, www.ellosgroup.com.

- Sustainability is an essential part of our long-term value creation and of whom we want to be – we want to contribute to a better world for future generations. The sustainability report is an example of how we increase transparency and share our efforts, goals, successes and challenges, says Hans Ohlsson, CEO at Ellos Group.

The report is based on Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), version 4, with the accordance option Core and it is available in English.
